Click on Start > All programs > Start and search for 'services.msc' Step 2. Right click and click 'Open command window here' or just 'cmd' Step 3. Once cmd is opened, type 'sc' to open the system command prompt. Step 4. Now type 'net stop ' to stop the service. Step 5. Type 'net start ' to start the service. Step 6. Your done. Open command prompt and type the following command to stop the service: net stop service_name This will open the service settings window. In the services tab, find the service_name service and uncheck the checkbox next to it. Type the following command to start the service: net start service_name In the services tab, find the service_name service and check the checkbox next to it. Type the following command to restart the service: Just a sad little part of the end of life journey. It was about time to start visiting again. We don't want to miss out on things. I wanted to go to the bazaars in Shiraz to see what the people and their wares were like. We didn't really manage to get anywhere. We were supposed to visit the bazaars in Masjid Jom (which we will talk about later) but there was a change of plan and instead of going there we decided to go to the bazaars in Palandokht and also the Iranian bazaar. We ended up at the bazaar in Masjid Jom and it was well worth it, but we will talk about that another time. But we decided to head back to Shiraz and see if we could find the bazaars in Palandokht. And we did. We went through the bazaar and realised that it was really small, that there was no actual shop to be had, that there was a complete lack of parking and that it was very very hot. However, because 82157476af
